

What is a URL?

What is a URL?

It stands for "universal resource locator". This is the address typed in to view your web page on the Internet. For example, you would type in <http://www.omdsolutions.com> to access our home page.